Obituary.

Martha Frances Thompson died October 13, 1892, aged 3 years, 7 months and 20 days. Eva Snow Thompson died October 15, 1892, aged 5 years, 6 months and 16 days. Such is the sad history of a few short days in the bereaved family of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Jackson township, Sumner county. Within two days two sweet little sisters pass over the river of death into the blessed land of eternal life. Sad indeed is this dispensation of a loving Father, but the parents knew that Jesus wanted these two tender buds to transplant in the heavenly land and they cheerfully bow in submission to His will.

Darling loved ones you have left us, But you're only gone before, And in Heaven we'll strive to meet you, Where death and parting are no more.

Eva Snow was a pupil in my school and one I dearly loved. As I sat by the casket and gazed upon her sweet little form, cold in death, I could scarcely realize that she had left us.

A few moments before her spirit took its flight, she called her papa to pray, saying, "Hurry up, papa." After prayer she said: "Now, I think I can get through all right." After a few moments she said, "Papa, I am almost through." In a few moments a heavenly smile lighted up her countenance as she said, "Papa, I am through" and closing her eyes upon earth, angels bore her away to the bosom of Jesus. As I sat by her lifeless form during the funeral services, it seemed as if I could hear her saying:

On the happy golden shore, Where the faithful part no more, When the storms of life are o'er, Meet me there.

Where the night dissolves away, Into pure and perfect day, I am going home to stay, Meet me there.

Farewell, dear loved ones, for a little while. We will soon meet you in that best land where goodbys are never said. D. T. Rose.

Now is the time to deborn your cattle. It will pay you to see Frank Mann. He uses the clippers in an easier and much less painful way than the old. Can deborn 500 a day. No. 701 N. C street, Wellington. 415
